Compared to last week, steer and heifer calves sold mostly steady. Yearling steers and heifers sold steady to 3.00 higher. Demand was good from large crowds, as well as on the internet as buyers looked for calves with preconditioned shots and for yearling feeders, light to moderate demand for other calves. Nebraska harvest cattle sales sold steady at 180.00 dressed and 1.00 higher at 115.00 live on a relative light to moderate cash movement. Supply this week comprised of 62 percent steers, 37 percent heifers with a few bull calves in the run. Near 28 percent of the run weighed over 600 lbs.
